Day 2: Edinburgh

Free time to explore the Scottish capital. Use the day for a city tour, sightseeing (the Castle, museums, galleries, Calton Hill) or a hike to the top of Edinburgh's extinct Volcano, Arthur's Seat. In the evening, round off your day with one of the city's renowned ghost tours, visit the famous jazz club or enjoy a traditional Scottish evening's entertainment. (Supplement applies). Overnight in Edinburgh.

Day 3: Carlisle

You could enjoy another day in Edinburgh or take the train across the beautiful Borders region to the English city of Carlisle. The imposing citadel is worth a visit as is the art museum and the cathedral. In the afternoon take the train back to Edinburgh via Glasgow. Overnight in Edinburgh.

Day 4: Glasgow – Oban

In the morning take the train to Glasgow. Explore this fascinating city with all its art and shopping possibilities. Alternatively take the train straight to the picturesque harbour town of Oban. Overnight in Oban.

Day 5: Oban

Today you have plenty time to unwind and stroll around the picture-perfect west coast town of Oban. A visit to one of the harbour's fish restaurants or the stands along the pier for fresh sea-food is a must. Why not take a boat trip to the Isle of Mull and discover the island's capital of Tobermory with its famous single malt distillery. Or maybe carry on by boat to Iona, known as the cradle of Christendom. (Supplements apply) Overnight in Oban.

Day 6: Oban – Mallaig

The West Highland Railway, passes over the wild and romantic Rannoch Moor, arriving at Mallaig on the Atlantic. This historic region has featured recently in films such as Rob Roy, Highlander and Braveheart. Overnight in Mallaig.

Day 7 and 8: Mallaig

Stroll around the pretty little coastal town of Mallaig. Let Armadale Castle, on the Isle of Skye, charm you with its glorious gardens or visit one of the small isles of Muck, Eigg and Rhum for a picnic. Discover one of the many idyllic hikes of the area, for example to Loch Morar, the UK's deepest lake, or trek far into the wild Knoydart peninsula. The warm waters of the gulf stream invite you to bathe in the sea.

During July and August the historic steam train to Fort William operates daily and crosses the Glenfinnan Viaduct, made famous by the Harry Potter movies. Overnight in Mallaig.

Day 9: The „wild wild West“

You have the choice between:

A romantic ferry trip to the Isle of Skye followed by a scenic bus tour across the island and return to the mainland via the famous Skye Bridge. Some free time in the picturesque village of Kyle of Lochalsh. Continue by train through the remote but beautiful Northwest of Scotland to Inverness.

Or: Take the train to Fort William, transfer to a bus and travel the length of the Great Glen to Inverness, taking in the sights of the Caledonian Canal, the ruins of Urquhart Castle and Loch Ness along the way- will you see Nessie?! You then have the opportunity to explore the idyllic little city of Inverness on foot. Overnight in Inverness.

Day 10: The North

Celts, Kilts and Monsters: plan the day depending on your interests.

Maybe you want to find out the truth about the famous Loch Ness Monster? Public bus is available or it can be organised for a supplement.

If on the previous day you have already seen Loch Ness or are leaving Inverness late on day 11, you can opt for an enjoyable train trip to the north coast to Thurso or the east coast to Aberdeen. Overnight in Inverness.

Day 11: Central Highlands

Today you can either enjoy the whole day in Inverness or continue your journey to the picturesque town of Pitlochry in the central Highlands in the morning, along rugged mountains, roaring waterfalls and deep lochs. Overnight in Pitlochry.

Day 12: Central Highlands

Enjoy stunning scenery, impressive mountain views, waterfalls and lochs. The mountain hike to Ben Vrackie is an amazing experience. Equally breath-taking is the hike to the River Tummel with picturesque views from the Pass of Killiecrankie and Queen's View. Visit the impressive Blair Castle and Gardens, seat of the Duke of Atholl, famed for its salmon run. Not to be missed is a visit to Edradour, Scotland's smallest whisky distillery. Overnight in Pitlochry.

Day 13: Departure from Edinburgh

Return to Edinburgh by train. Airport transfer and flight home or connecting programme.
